I took his advice, and when I found Hope alone in the parlor I came and asked her, very awkwardly as I now remember, to go with me. She looked at me, blushing, and said she would ask her mother. And she did, and we walked to the schoolhouse together that evening, her hand holding my arm timidly, the most serious pair that ever struggled with the problem of deportment on such an occasion. I was oppressed with a heavy sense of responsibility in every word I uttered. Ann Jane Foster, known as "Scooter Jane," for her rapid walk and stiff carriage, met us at the corners on her way to the schoolhouse. "Big turnout, I guess," said she. "Jed Feary an' Squire Town is comin' over from Jingleville an' all the big guns 'll be there. I love t' hear Jed Feary speak. He's so techin'." Ann Jane was always looking around for some event likely to touch her feelings. She went to every funeral in Faraway, and when sorrow was scarce in her own vicinity journeyed far in quest of it. "Wouldn't wonder 'f the fur flew when they git t' goin'," she remarked, and then hurried on, her head erect, her

"I am well now and enjoying better health than ever before in my whole life."

That is the statement of a woman who had never been well until she was made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. There are a great many other women in like case. They have always been sufferers from disease. They have never known the joy of perfect health.

For all such women Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription holds out the prospect of perfect and permanent health, by the cure of the womanly diseases which weaken women. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and gives them power well.

It gives me pleasure to tell you know of the great benefit received from Dr. Pierce's medicine and the advice which you so kindly sent," writes Mrs. Bertie Parker, of Bonham, Panola Co., Texas. "I took your 'Favorite Prescription,' 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' and followed your advice regarding the 'Lotion Tablets,' and am cured. I had been treated by different doctors and spent one hundred dollars for treatment and medicine, but received very little relief. I have only spent seventeen dollars and fifty cents for your medicine and it has cured me in three or four months of ulceration and falling of uterus. I suffered severe misery in my back, also irregular periods. Had bearing-down in lower portion of body and great pain all through my body. Pain in uterus was very severe. Had smearing spells, breath was very short all the time, had pain in stomach, pain in my thighs, pain in breast, also between my shoulders. Howls constipated. I am well now and enjoying better health than ever before in my whole life. Am happy to tell you that I was cured by your good advice and good medicines, the 'Favorite Prescription,' 'Golden Medical Discovery,' 'Pleasant Pellets' and 'Lotion Tablets.' These medicines cured me and will cure others also."

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. His profit is your loss, therefore accept no substitute. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate the bowels.

a man fighting bees and his drawing tones are as familiar as the things of yesterday.

"Gentlemen an' ladies," said he presently, "let me show you a pictur'. It is the drunkard's child. It is hungry, an' there ain't no food in its home. The child is poorer 'n a straw fed hoss. 'Tain't hed a thing t' eat since day before yistiddy. Pictur' it to yourselves as it comes cryin' to its mother an' says:

"Ma, gi' me a piece o' bread an' butter."
"She covers her face with her apron an' says she, 'There ain't none left, my child.'"

"An' bime by the child comes ag'in an' holds up its poor little han' an' says, 'Ma, please gi' me a piece o' cake.' An' she goes an' looks out o' the window er mebbe pokes the fire an' says, 'There ain't none left, my child.'"

"An' bime by it comes ag'in, an' it says, 'Please gi' me a little piece o' pie.'"

"An' she mebbe flops into a chair an' says, sobbin', 'There ain't none left, my child.'"

"No pie! Now, Mr. Chairman," exclaimed the orator as he lifted both hands high above his head, "if this ain't misery, in God's name what is it?"

"Years ago, when I was a young man, Mr. President, I went to a dance one night at the village of Migleyville. I got a toothache, an' the devil tempted me with whisky, an' I tuk one glass an' then another, an' purty soon I began t' think I was a mighty hefty sort of a character. I did, an' I stud on a corner an' stumped everybody t' fight with me, an' bime by an' accommodat-in' kind of a chap come along, an' that's all I remember o' what happened. When I come to my coat tails had been tore off, I'd lost one leg o' my trousers, a bran new silver watch, tew dollars in money an' a pair o' spectacles. When Seeing his arms like a man fighting bees. I stud up an' tried t' realize what hed happened. I felt jes' like a blind rooster with only one leg an' no tail feathers."

A roar of laughter followed these frank remarks of Mr. Tupper and broke into a storm of merriment when Uncle Eb rose and said:

"Mr. President, I hope you see that the misfortunes of our friend was due t' war an' not to intemperance."

Mr. Tupper was unheeded. For some minutes he stood helpless or shaking with the emotion that possessed him. Then he finished lamely and sat down.

The narrowness of the man that saw so much where there was so little in his own experience and in the trivial events of his own township was what I now recognize as most valuable to the purpose of this history. It was a narrowness that covered a multitude of people in St. Lawrence county in those days.

Jed Feary was greeted with applause and then by respectful silence when he rose to speak. The fame of his verse and his learning had gone far beyond the narrow boundaries of the township in which he lived. It was the biggest thing in the county. Many a poor sinner who had gone out of Faraway to his long home got his first praise in the obituary poem by Jed Feary. These tributes were generally published in the county paper and paid for by the relatives of the deceased at the rate of a dollar a day for the time spent on them or by a few days of board and lodging—glory and consolation that was, alas, too cheap, as one might see by a glance at his forlorn figure.

I shall never forget the courtly manner, so strangely in contrast with the rude deportment of other men in that place, with which he addressed the chairman and the people. The drawing dialect of the vicinity that flavored his conversation fell from him like a mantle as he spoke, and the light in his soul shone upon that little company—a great light, as I now remember, that filled me with burning thoughts of the world and its mighty theater of action. The way of my life lay clear before me as I listened and its days of toil and the sweet success my God has given me, although I take it humbly and hold it infinitely above my merit. I was to get learning and seek some way of expressing what was in me.

It would ill become me to try to repeat the words of this venerable seer, but he showed that intemperance was an individual sin, while war was a national evil. That one meant often the ruin of a race, the other the ruin of a family; that one was as the ocean, the other as a single drop in its waters. And he told us of the fall of empires and the millions that had suffered the oppression of the conqueror and perished by the sword of Agamemnon.

After the debate a young lady read a literary paper full of clumsy wit, rude chronicles of the countryside, essays on "Spring" and like topics—the work of the best talent of Faraway. Then came the decision, after which the meeting adjourned.

At the door some boys tried "to cut me out." I came through the noisy crowd, however, with Hope on my arm and my heart full of a great happiness. "Did you like it?" she asked. "Very much," I answered. "What did you enjoy most?" "Your company," I said, with a fine air of gallantry.

"Honestly? I want to take you to Rickard's some time."

This was indeed a long cherished hope. "Maybe I won't let you," she said. "Wouldn't you?" "You'd better ask me some time and see."

"I shall. I wouldn't ask any other girl."

"Well," she added, with a sigh, "if a boy likes one girl I don't think he ought to have anything to do with other girls. I hate a flirt."

I happened to hear a footfall in the snow behind us, and, looking back, saw Ann Jane Foster going slow in easy hearing. She knew all, as we soon found out.

"I dew jes' love t' see young folks enjoy themselves," said she. "It's entrancin'!"

Coming in at our gate, I saw a man going over the wall back of the big stables. The house was dark.

"Did you see the night man?" Elizabeth Brower whispered as I lit the lamp. "Went through the garden just now. I've been watching him here at the window."

BRYAN ON DECK

Nebraskan Looking Out for the Main Chance in 1908.

Lincoln, Neb., April 3.—"It is a getting together of the aggressive elements of the party in active preliminary work for the great battle of 1908," is the way William Jennings Bryan explained his recent activity in connection with the recent reorganization of the Democratic party. Mr. Bryan has returned from Des Moines, and it was with particular reference to the meeting held there Saturday, at which he made the political address, that he spoke. Mr. Bryan explained that the Des Moines meeting, like the one held at Topeka, Kan., late in February, was to further a movement for the organization of Democratic clubs, and thereby place the machinery of the party in the hands of those who meant it well. In Iowa, he said, the same plan had been adopted as in Kansas, with both of which he was in hearty sympathy.

"Reorganization," said Mr. Bryan, "is hardly the proper way to express it, because the party does not need reorganization. There is no factional division calling for such movement, but the movement is to get back to the people, to put the radical and progressive element in more complete control, that there may be united, harmonious effort for the campaign of 1908. The purpose is to begin at the bottom, letting the rank and file have a voice in the national convention by writing the platform at home for the national convention to ratify."

Mr. Bryan said he was not trying to head a faction or to change the organization further than that he wants the progressive men of the party to take the lead. The conservatives, he said, had dominated the last national convention and the party had met with defeat. He believed the rank and file of the voters was for progression, and radicalism is need be.

She Fulfilled Her Threat.

Lancaster, Pa., April 3.—Ralph W. Kline, aged twenty-six years, an artist, was fatally stabbed Sunday afternoon by Jennie Good, aged eighteen. Kline and Miss Good were members of a party who were fishing near Long Park. Kline and the girl had a quarrel, during which Miss Good threatened to cut out his heart. Thinking that she would not execute her threat, Kline threw out his chest and told her to stab. She did, plunging a knife into his breast near the heart. He is at a hospital unconscious. The girl fled and has not yet been arrested.

Probably Fell From Boat.

Algoma, Wis., April 3.—Edward Decker, jr., of this city mysteriously disappeared while en route from Ludington to Manitowoc on a Pere Marquette ferry. It is supposed he was accidentally drowned. Mr. Decker practically was the head of the Decker financial interests in this region, which consists of eight banking houses, two newspapers, the Green Bay Advocate and the Algoma Record, several manufacturing concerns and railroad interests. He was thirty-four years old and had held a number of offices.

Death Invades Pulpit.

Lexington, Ky., April 3.—Rev. Jas. Cochrane, a student of the Bible college of the Kentucky university in this city, dropped dead in the pulpit of the Stamping Ground Christian church ten miles from Lexington, Sunday. He had just read the text for his morning sermon when he suddenly ceased speaking, placed his hand to his head and sank to the platform lifeless. Heart disease was the cause. He was thirty-two years of age and married. His home was at Broadwell, Ky.

Secretary Hay at Naples.

Naples, April 3.—The White Star line steamship Cretic, with Secretary of State John Hay and Mrs. Hay on board, arrived here Sunday after a pleasant voyage. Mr. Hay declares that his health has been greatly improved by the trip, and Mrs. Hay also is enjoying the voyage. Later the vessel sailed for Genoa. From Genoa Secretary Hay will go to the Riviera.

PRESIDENT STARTS

Long Outing For Nation's Chief Executive Has Begun.

ROUGH RIDERS REUNION

This is the Prime Objective of the President's Trip With Big Hunt as a Side Issue.

The First Stop on the Journey Will Be Made at Louisville, Ky., Tomorrow.

Washington, April 3.—President Roosevelt left here this morning at 9 o'clock over the Pennsylvania railroad on a long trip to the West and Southwest and will be absent from the capital for nearly two months. One of the chief objects of the trip, which the president long has had in mind, is the reunion of the Rough Rider regiment of the Spanish war which is to take place at San Antonio, Tex., next Friday, and for which an elaborate program of exercises has been arranged. There will be several brief stops, where the president will make addresses on the way to San Antonio. After leaving San Antonio there will be a brief stop and address at Fort Worth, which will end the public part of the trip, after which the president is to go hunting in the Panhandle of Texas and later in Colorado. All arrangements have been made whereby the president will keep in touch with public affairs both during his railroad ride and while hunting, so that he will be enabled to pass on all matters requiring his attention. He has been looking forward with keen pleasure to his long vacation.

The president will be accompanied by Secretary Losh, Dr. Alex. Lambert, General S. M. B. Young, Lieutenant G. R. Fortescue, M. C. Latta and J. L. McGrew, stenographers and representatives of newspapers and press associations.

The first stop will be made at Louisville, Ky., at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. The president and party will pass in procession through the city and the president will make an address. The train will leave Louisville at 11 o'clock, pass through St. Louis at 8 p. m. and at that point take the Missouri, Kansas & Texas road for San Antonio. A few stops will be made in Indian Territory on Wednesday. At Sherman, Tex., where the party will arrive at 4 p. m., the president will leave the train, drive to the public square, and make a brief address. Dallas will be reached at 6:30 p. m. and after a public address the president will attend a dinner.

The next stop will be at Waco on Thursday, April 6, at 9:30 a. m. The president will speak briefly at Waco. He will reach Austin at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, address the joint session of the legislature at the capitol, and later speak to the public on the lawn of the capitol.

The train will reach San Antonio at 8:30 p. m., Thursday, but there will be no public program until the following morning. The object of the president in visiting San Antonio is to attend the reunion of his regiment. Exercises have been arranged which will fill the entire day, including a review of the regular troops at Fort Sam Houston, a procession in which the Grand Army and Confederate Veterans will take part, luncheon at the Rough Riders' camp, and a dinner by the business men's club at Hotel Menger. The president will leave at 11 p. m. for Fort Worth, arriving there the next morning at 9:45 and leaving at 10:45. The program for Fort Worth will consist of a drive and an address.

At Fort Worth the public part of the trip will end. The president will spend some days hunting in the Panhandle of Texas and will then go to Colorado for a hunt of some weeks' duration. No plans have yet been made for the return trip to Washington.

A CIVILIAN WELCOME

Military Features Will Be Eliminated at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., April 3.—Louisville's welcome to President Roosevelt Tuesday will be purely a civilian affair. The local committee, headed by the Hon. Logan C. Murray, considered carefully the matter of giving the president a befitting reception, but decided that owing to the short time the executive will be in the city that it were better to make his short stay not only a typical Kentucky welcome, but a reception representative of both North and South in a state bordering as it does both sections of the country. The military feature therefore has been eliminated and beyond one camp of Confederate Veterans, the two posts of Grand Army men, the Spanish War Veterans association and representatives of the Loyal Legion, the procession which will escort the president during his three hour stay in the city will be composed of representative citizens of Louisville, men of the North and of the South and a few invited guests from the state at large. Before the president takes his departure he will be presented with three gifts intended as souvenirs of his visit, but nevertheless of a historical character. One is a silver flagon filled with water from the spring on the farm in REXALL "93" HAIR TONIC.

Put a hair from your head—if it is plump and rosy it is healthy, but if it is white and shrunken it is certainly diseased—and diseased hair is the short road to a bald head. Few people can afford a bald head, for a bald head is a serious handicap. In these days when youth is a moving factor, when a man has to make his mark at thirty-five or be dubbed a "has been"—when business houses pension the man we used to call "middle aged," rather than allow their lagging influence to intrude upon the modern rush—you will certainly believe us in saying a bald head is a serious handicap. Few people can afford a bald head. Even those who can—those who are "fixed" socially, financially and matrimonially have no desire for bald heads. But whether we can afford it or not, thousands of us are bald, either partially or wholly. What caused the baldness, whether an inherited tendency, undue mental effort, sickness, dandruff or other scalp disease, makes no difference. What we want is to grow new hair.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is a positive cure for all hair and scalp troubles. It is not sticky nor gummy, will not thicken on the hair, does not become rancid, has no disagreeable odor. It is clean, agreeable and pleasant to take.

It is a hair dressing of the highest order, and when a purchaser considers that we take all the risk in making such strong statements, is there any risk in giving it a trial? We want you to try our personal recommendation one bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We will sell it to you on the broad and liberal Rexall guarantee of "Your money back if you are in any way dissatisfied." We do this of a desire to sell our customers just the remedies that give them value for their money. All we ask is the return of the empty bottle. Price, 50c. a bottle.

Rexall "93" Shampoo

A fragrant perfumed toilet preparation, that will make the scalp cleaner than any other shampoo—and keep it clean—is put up in large capped jars, twenty-five cents each. Guaranteed too.

W. F. PETER DRUG CO.
REXALL AGENCY

Larue county on which Abraham Lincoln was born. On the flagon is a monogram comprising the letters "T. R." Another piece is a large silver vase on which is engraved "Louisville, Ky., April 4, 1905." The third gift is a unique piece in the shape of an inkstand. It was made from an oak tree which grew near the spring on the old Lincoln homestead. The inkholder is of silver sunk into the wood.

A BOLD MISSION

Scouts Perform One of the Most Daring Exploits of the War.

With General Kuroki's Army in the Field, April 3, via Fusan.—Two detachments of Japanese cavalry have returned to the army after the most extensive and dangerous scouting exploit of the war. The detachments were sent north early in January under the leadership of Colonel Naganuma and Major Sasagawa, and numbered each 150 men. Only 100 men of each detachment returned. They explored the Russian positions west of Mukden. They encountered and eluded many forces of Russian cavalry and penetrated General Mischenko's line. Then, going northward, they crossed the railroad, cutting the road and the telegraph line during the battle. Afterward they visited Kirin and explored that place and finally returned to the army north of Kaiyuan.

A Bourse Rumor.

St. Petersburg, April 3.—According to the peace reports circulated on the bourse Russia will cede the southern portion of the Island of Sakhalin in the north Pacific off the east coast of Asia, used as a Russian convict settlement, to Japan, and agree that Manchuria and Korea are permanently outside the Russian sphere of influence, and the Eastern Chinese railroad will be turned over to Japan for cession to China or to an international syndicate upon a consideration of $125,000,000, which Japan will accept in lieu of indemnity.

Headed for Vladivostok.

Gunshu Pass, April 3.—Native reports which may be taken for what they are worth state that the Japanese are leaving before the Russian front only a screen capable, with the help of the Mukden and Tie Pass fortifications and garrisons, of holding in check General Linvitch, and are transferring the bulk of their five armies to Vladivostok and, by means of a wide movement through Mongolia, to Tsitsihar.

From Army Headquarters.

Tokio, April 3.—The following official advices have been received from army headquarters in Manchuria: "Our scouts advanced toward Hailu and collided with 300 of the enemy's cavalry at Shaucientzu, thirty miles southwest of Sellung, on the morning of March 28. The enemy, 4,011 men strong, retreated to Hailu, leaving 2,000 troopers. The situation is unchanged in the Changchun and Kirin directions."

Troops Fired Into Crowd.

Warsaw, April 3.—A serious conflict occurred at 7:30 o'clock Jewish in Dzikia street, where a Jewish Socialist society, known as the Bund, had organized a demonstration. The troops which came to disperse the gathering fired into the crowd, killing four persons and wounding nine others.

Don't Expect to Return.

Tokio, April 3.—Reports from Manchuria show that the Russians are destroying the railway much more thoroughly than hitherto. The evident inference is that they do not contemplate recovering the situation.

Situation at Front Unchanged.

Gunshu Pass, April 3.—The situation here is unchanged. General Mischenko has moved forward into close touch with the Japanese and keeps up constant skirmishing. Elsewhere everything is quiet.

Loan Was Oversubscribed.

St. Petersburg, April 3.—It is announced that the internal loan has been so largely subscribed that applicants will be allotted only 40 per cent of the amounts asked for.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

At Pittsburgh John C. Walton killed his wife and then cut his own throat.

Four trainmen were killed in a wreck on the Southern Railway near Branchville, S. C.

In a saloon brawl at Mannington, Ky., Isaac Dunning shot and killed a young man named Kirby.

Hans Christian Andersen's centenary is being celebrated throughout Denmark under royal patronage.

Fire destroyed the Illinois southern hospital for the insane at Anna, but the inmates were not endangered.

President William F. Potter of the Long Island railway is dead at New York with cerebral spinal meningitis.

More than ten trains, stocked with provisions and war material, are leaving St. Petersburg daily for Vladivostok.

Michael Nelson, a farmer living near Poplar, Iowa, killed his two daughters, aged ten and thirteen respectively, and then committed suicide.

The Simpton tunnel, the longest in the world, was inaugurated Sunday when from the Swiss and Italian sides the first trains passed through.

Many versions of Emperor William's tangler utterances continue to circulate in Paris and Berlin, but nothing official concerning the speech has been issued.

Indictments Seem Likely.

Chicago, April 3.—Well authenticated reports that the federal grand jury which is investigating the business methods of the meat packers will return indictments when it reconvenes next Wednesday, are prevalent.

Stewart Leaves Washington.

Washington, April 3.—Former Senator Stewart of Nevada, after many years spent here in public life, has left Washington to make his home in Tonopah, Nev.

Mariners Leave Colon.

Colon, April 3.—The United States cruiser Dixie has sailed for Guantanamo, Cuba, taking all the marines from Camp Elliott except one company.

The Incident Closes.

Berlin, April 3.—A dispatch received here from Tangier announces that the affair of the murder of a German subject named Genthe has been arranged. Two Moors who were implicated have been condemned to imprisonment for life and the government of Morocco has undertaken to erect a monument over Genthe's grave and compensate his family.

MOTHERHOOD

Actual Sterility in Women Is Very Rare—Healthy Mothers and Children Make Happy Homes.

Many women long for a child to bless their homes, but because of some debility or displacement of the female organs they are barren.

Preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound more successfully than by any other medicine, because it gives tone and strength to the entire female organism, curing all displacements, ulceration and inflammation.

A woman who is in good physical condition transmits to her children the blessings of a good constitution. Is not that an incentive to prepare for a healthy maternity?

If expectant mothers would fortify themselves with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for thirty years has sustained thousands of women in this condition, there would be a great decrease in miscarriages, in suffering, and in disappointments at birth.

The following letters to Mrs. Pinkham demonstrate the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in such cases.

Mrs. L. C. Glover, Vice-President of Milwaukee Grocers' Woman's Association, of 614 Grove Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I was married for several years and no children blessed our home. The doctor said I had a complication of female troubles and I could not have any children unless I could be cured. For months I took his medicines, trying in vain for a cure, but at last my husband became disgusted and suggested that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; this I did, and I improved steadily in health, and in less than two years a beautiful child came to bless our home. Now we have something to live for, and all the credit is due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Many Women Have Been Benefited by Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Medicine.

Mrs. Mae P. Wharry, Secretary of the North Shore Oratorical Society, The Norman, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I was married for five years and gave birth to two premature children. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me, and I am so glad I took it, for it changed me from a weak, nervous woman to a strong, happy and healthy one within seven months. Within two years a lovely little girl was born, which is the pride and joy of our household. Every day I bless Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for the light, health and happiness it brought to our home."

If any woman thinks she is sterile, or has doubts about her ability to carry a child to a mature birth let her write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., whose advice is free to all expectant or would-be mothers. She has helped thousands of women through this anxious period.

Women suffering with irregular or painful menstruation, leucorrhoea, displacement, ulceration or inflammation of the womb, that bearing down feeling or ovarian trouble, backache, bloating or nervous prostration, should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of actual cures of woman's ills, and accept no substitute.

FRANK RUCKER

Remains Brought to This City For Burial.

The remains of Frank Rucker, who received fatal injuries in the Southern Indiana yards at Linton Saturday morning, arrived here at 11:15 today. Mrs. Rucker and a delegation from the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen accompanied the remains, and were met at the station by quite a number of relatives and friends. The remains were taken from the train to Riverview cemetery for burial. The religious services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Austin B. Conrad.

Frank Rucker was twenty-six years of age and leaves a wife and one child. He was a switchman in the yards at Linton and Saturday morning while at work fell between two moving cars. His body was rolled and crushed by the brake beams. The accident happened about eight o'clock in the forenoon and he died about two hours later. His brother who is also employed by the Southern Indiana was at work about two miles distant. A messenger was sent for him and he reached his brother's side about an hour after the accident.

"Uncle Daniel" Again.

No play given here in years created as much favorable comment as the "Uncle Daniel" show given on last Friday night. There were many persons who were unable to secure seats on that night and requests have been made from all parts of town and hearty support promised to repeat the performance, and the cast has decided to give it again at popular prices on next Thursday night. The initial performance was a great surprise to all, as they did not expect such a decidedly interesting play. New and shorter specialties will be introduced, making the coming performance better than the first. Ask your friends who were there about it.

Don't Borrow Trouble.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow, is trouble. WATER BOTTLE SUBSTITUTE

Asbestos Pads Heated by Electricity Coming Into Favor.

The use of asbestos by electricians is daily increasing, for it meets the most exacting requirements for purposes of insulation. Its latest application, says the Chicago Chronicle, is to the "electrotherm," the new device which is already taking the place of hot water bottles in hospitals and sickrooms.

The electrotherm is a flexible pad of asbestos in which electric wires are imbedded. When these wires are connected with any source of electric current a constant and uniform degree of heat is generated. For this connection the socket of an electric lamp is ordinarily found most convenient. Where the lighting current is not available batteries can be used.

This pad is found a great relief in chilliness, cold feet, etc., as well as in cramps and other local pains and general hospital practice. By its use the risk and discomfort of frequent changes of temperature incident to the renewal of ordinary applications are entirely removed.

By moistening it, which can be done without injury to the pad, it can be made to give the effect of a poultice or moist heat, especially if it is applied over one or two thicknesses of flannel. From the fact that it can be used by any one with perfect safety and because of its simplicity and convenience it is most valuable for medical use. The regulation of the temperature is controlled by a conveniently placed switch.

Pads can be maintained at a temperature of 120 degrees, 170 degrees and 220 degrees F. when covered with ordinary bedclothing, but these temperatures can be modified by the interposition of a blanket or raised by additional covering. This invention comes in several forms, from the simple pad for all ordinary uses to the wicker covered mat or foot warmer and a capelike covering which will completely envelop the neck and upper part of the body.

HOPSTETTERS

STOMACH BITTERS

There's no reason why you should remain sickly and delicate. The Bitters has made thousands strong and robust and will do the same for you. Just try it today and see for yourself. It cures Indigestion, Poor Appetite, Constipation, Colds, Grippe, Spring Fever or General Weakness.

CONSUMPTION

Mainly Caused by Chronic Colds and Hanging-on Coughs.

A member of the W. F. Peter Drug Co. has given a good deal of time to the study of consumption, and finds that comparatively few cases are hereditary.

Mostly all are caused by neglected coughs and colds, which gradually weaken the whole pulmonary system, and before people realize it there is a diseased spot in one lung; spitting blood soon follows and eventually a collapse.

Such an unnecessary end, such a pity, for all could have been so different. We know of hundreds of cases where our wonderful cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, has saved a young and valuable life, which without it would have been sacrificed. We have letters from people who were given up to die, and who positively state that Vinol, and Vinol alone, saved their lives when all else had failed to help them.

Vinol is able to cure hanging-on colds and stubborn coughs, because it is the most perfect preparation of cod liver oil ever compounded; it contains no oil or grease to upset the delicate stomach, yet it does contain every one of the fifty odd medicinal curative elements actually taken from fresh cod's livers, and we freely and publicly state that we will supply all the Vinol we think necessary to cure any case of chronic coughs, hanging-on colds or weak and debilitated conditions of the respiratory system, and pay for the medicine ourselves if it fails to give satisfactory results.

How can we express our faith in Vinol more emphatically? W. F. Peter Drug Co.

DIED.

VAUTERS—Mrs. Hannah Vauters died Sunday at her home at Clear-spring, at which place she has lived for over fifty years. The cause of her sudden death was heart trouble. She is the widow of Taxwell Vauters, who was captain of a company in the 50th Indiana regiment. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Jacob Hinkle, of Clear-spring. She was very well known and has many friends in this city. The funeral will be held at the Baptist church at Clear-spring Tuesday afternoon.

The Secret of Success.

Forty million bottles of August Flower sold in the United States alone since its introduction! And the demand for it is still growing! Isn't that a fine showing of success? Don't it prove that August Flower has had unfailing success in the cure of indigestion and dyspepsia—the two greatest enemies of health and happiness? Does it not afford the best evidence that August Flower is a sure specific for all stomach and intestinal disorders?—that it has proved itself the best of all liver regulators? August Flower has a matchless record of over thirty-five years in curing the ailing millions of these distressing complaints—a success that is becoming wider in its scope every day, at home and abroad, as the fame of August Flower spreads. Trial bottles, 25c., regular size, 75c. For sale by W. F. Peter Drug Co.

NATURE TELLS YOU.

As Many a Seymour Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are sick, Nature tells you all about it. The urine is nature's calendar. Infrequent or too frequent actions; Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cures all kidney ills.

Seymour people testify to this. Mrs. Jane Combs, of Cincinnati Ave., says: "I procured Doan's Kidney Pills from C. W. Milbourn's drug store. Two members of my family suffered greatly from their back and kidneys and I insisted on their taking a course of the treatment. They did so and were soon benefited. I also used the remedy myself with good results. Doan's Kidney Pills strengthen the kidneys, remove backache and banish annoyances arising from difficulty with the kidney secretions. I recommend them heartily to others in need of a reliable kidney remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milbourn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

RHEUMATISM ROBS LIFE OF PLEASURE

Rheumatism does more than any other disease to rob life of pleasure and comfort. It is so painful and far-reaching in its effects on the system that those afflicted with it find themselves utterly unable to enjoy bodily comfort or any of the pleasures of life. Some are bound hand and foot and suffer constantly with excruciating pains, swollen, stiff joints and muscles, and often distorted, crooked limbs, while others have intervals of freedom, during which they live in constant fear and dread of the next attack, when, at the least exposure to damp weather, or slight irregularity of any kind, the disease will return.

I had been troubled with Rheumatism for two years, had been under the treatment of physicians, and tried everything recommended to me, but all to no avail. My knee and elbow joints were so stiff that I could not use them. I was unable to do my household work, and was truly in a pitiable condition. S. S. S. cured me after using it for awhile, and I unhesitatingly give it the credit it so much deserves.

Sta. A., E. Liverpool, O. Mrs. M. A. DECKER.

The cause of Rheumatism is a sour, acid condition of the blood, produced by food lying undigested in the stomach, poor bowel action, weak kidneys and a general sluggish condition of the system. External applications, such as liniments, oils, plasters, etc., do not reach the cause and can only give temporary relief. The blood must be cleansed and purified before a cure can be had. S. S. S. attacks the disease in the right way—it neutralizes the poison and filters out every particle of it from the blood, stimulates the sluggish organs and clears the system of all foreign matter. It cures the disease permanently and safely because it contains no harmful minerals to derange the stomach and digestion. Book on Rheumatism and any advice you wish, without charge.

TOO MUCH CIVIL SERVICE

Congressman Watson Has His Views on This Subject.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 3.—Congressman "Jim" Watson of the old burnt district is an enemy of civil service and may introduce a bill at the coming session to limit or abolish it. He does not believe that any great good accrues to the government by placing so many thousands of its employees under civil service. He holds that it makes the average employee too independent in that he feels that his position is so secure that he don't have to answer to anyone directly. Mr. Watson would make every employee answer to the head of the department and would provide that the latter be responsible for the character of work performed. He would also provide that no one should be appointed to any position until after he demonstrated by ninety days of service his fitness. In this way he thinks that as good men could be secured as under the civil service. Mr. Watson is sure that if the right kind of an opportunity is made civil service can be abolished or greatly limited. He will try to have the matter pretty thoroughly discussed during the coming session.

It is said that Chairman Ed Logsdon and other local politicians who were members of the Bookwalter machine in the hey-day of its glory are responsible for Captain New's mayoralty boom. An interesting phase of the situation is that Logsdon should be trying to get Captain New to become a candidate whereas two years ago he called a "snap" convention which prevented the anti-Bookwalter crowd from inducing New to enter the race against Bookwalter. It is conceded that if Logsdon can get New to become a candidate against his former chief that he will have taken a long step towards winning out as it is admitted that New would be a powerful factor. Many believe, in fact, that he would be nominated almost unanimously if he should announce his candidacy as there is a desire among Republicans generally for a new deal. But up to this time New has not shown any desire to become a candidate for the office. His friends believe he has hopes of being elected Republican national chairman in 1908 which would probably deter him from becoming a candidate for mayor.

It is rumored that John McCordle of New Richmond, had a hand in making the appointment of C. B. Riley of Rushville as secretary, a position paying $2,500 a year. In fact, if it had not been for McCordle, Riley would probably not have been appointed as he was not the favorite of Union B. Hunt or the governor. McCordle, however, insisted on the appointment of Riley and the governor was under such lasting obligations to him for his share of the work of bringing about his nomination that he landed his man ahead of a strong field of applicants. McCordle, it is said, was sorely disappointed because he was not appointed as a member of the commission. It is said that the governor at the start thought seriously of giving him one of the positions but he had to drop him when he determined that the three members should be attorneys.

Prevent Headache As Well As Cure

If subject to headache, take Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills when you feel the first indication of an attack, and you will find that they rarely ever fail to stop further progress.

Pain weakens the nerves, and the longer you suffer, the more frequent will be the attacks.

On the contrary, if the nerves are relieved of this weakening influence, the attacks will be less frequent, and finally disappear altogether.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills contain no opium, cocaine, morphine or chloral in any form. They are absolutely harmless if taken as directed, and will have no other effect, except to drive out the pain.

"Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are all right, and I can recommend them to any one in need of a remedy for headache, neuralgia, or pain of any kind. My health is not very good, and I am subject to frequent attacks of severe headache, but since I began taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills I do not suffer from that trouble as I used to. They never fail to give relief in a few minutes, and if taken promptly on the approach of headache will prevent an attack from coming on." Pain Pills prevent, as well as cure.

W. E. PETER DRUG CO.

Perry S. Heath for many years a luminous figure in national politics is about to become an Indiana farmer. Relatives of his near Noblesville are in receipt of a letter from him from Paris saying that he and Mrs. Heath will return to this country soon and will probably spend the summer in Indiana on a Hamilton county farm. It is intimated that he may buy a fine farm here and retire from active business. Heath has never resided for any length of time in Indiana since he was appointed to public service but it has been understood that he is anxious to return to the state for permanent residence.

Four-Year-Old Shoots Sister.

Connersville, Ind., April 3.—Miss Minnie Brandenburg, age fifteen years, lies at the point of death at her home at Quakertown as the result of a bullet wound, caused by her little four-year-old brother. The children were playing in the house when the boy discovered a gun that had been left on a table a few minutes before by his father. Taking it up and aiming at the unfortunate girl, he shouted: "Look out, sister," and pulled the trigger. The bullet entered the girl's right side below the ribs and was afterward removed by physicians from near the breast bone, where it had lodged. The girl is in a critical condition but little hopes are entertained for her recovery.

Coolie Labor Causes Trouble.

Johannesburg, April 3.—There was a serious disturbance near Krugersdorp on Saturday arising out of a strike of Chinese miners. The police were called upon to restore order and in the conflict which ensued several of the police and many Chinamen were injured. Many arrests were made.

Evansville, Ind., April 3.—Muehlenbruch, aged sixty-five years, who was out of work and despondent, took an overdose of morphine and cannot recover.

LIFTING THE LID

Startling Disclosure Made in Connection With Storey Cotton Company.

INSPECTOR RESIGNED

It Was All Off With Postoffice Inspector Holden When Defunct Company's Books Were Opened.

It Was There Revealed That He Had Borrowed Money From Get-Rich-Quick Concern.

Philadelphia, April 3.—George C. Holden, the inspector in the United States postal service, attached to the Philadelphia inspection division, who admitted Saturday that the Storey Cotton company, most of whose officers are fugitives from justice, advanced $1,100 to him as a loan for a few days, has sent his resignation to Washington. Holden declares that he received the money and paid it back a few days later without any understanding or agreement with the Storey Cotton company that he was to protect the concern against investigation by the postoffice department. He however admitted that in accepting the loan from that concern, he was indiscreet, and thought it best, in view of the revelations in the case, to send his resignation to the postal authorities at Washington.

A record of the loan was found while Assistant United States District Attorneys Stewart and Swartley of this city were making an examination of the books of the defunct concern for the purpose of getting further evidence against Stanley Francis, who is under arrest charged with being an officer of the Storey concern. Holden was present when the discovery was made.

When the entry was shown to Holden he was greatly surprised to find that it had been entered on the books. His explanation at the time was that it was a personal loan.

The matter was immediately reported to W. W. Dickson, inspector in charge of the local division, who in turn communicated the facts to the chief inspector at Washington. By direction of Postmaster General Cortelyou, Inspector Mayer of the New York division has been sent here and is making an investigation of Holden's connection with the Storey Cotton company. He declines to discuss the case in any way.

Holden says that it was a personal loan from F. Ewart Storey, and he believes that the item was placed on the books to do him injury. Since the loan was made, he says, he has sent three separate reports to Washington recommending that fraud orders be issued against the Storey concern.

The Philadelphia Record today says that Inspector Holden declares that Harrison J. Barrett, formerly of the department of justice, Washington, and nephew of the late James Tyner, who was involved in the postoffice scandals, was the attorney for the Storey Cotton company while he was actually connected with the department of justice. Asked if it was true, as Holden contends, that Barrett was responsible for the failure of the postoffice department to issue a fraud order against the Storey company and that he was their lawyer, U. S. Assistant District Attorney Stewart said: "I can only say the investigation into the Storey affairs and the discovery of certain papers seem to partially bear out that contention. I know what he got."

Indiana Man in the Lead.

Cleveland, O., April 3.—The executive board of the Amalgamated Window Glass Workers of America was in session here Sunday counting the second ballot in the vote for president of the organization. A total of 4,613 votes was cast. No candidate received the necessary majority of votes over all, and a third vote will be taken. The result of the third ballot will be made known on the first Saturday in May. The second ballot showed A. L. Faulkner of Dunkirk, Ind., still in the lead.

Hyde Makes His Point.

New York, April 3.—James Hazen Hyde won a decisive victory in the fight made against him by the representatives of the opposing interest of J. W. Alexander, when it was decided to mutualize the Equitable Life Assurance Society upon the lines suggested by Mr. Hyde, namely, that the policy holders be given representation in the direction of the affairs of the company at a ratio of 28 to 24.

There Will Be No Strike.

Philadelphia, April 3.—All danger of a strike among the soft coal miners in central Pennsylvania was averted by an agreement reached by the representatives of the coal operating companies. The demand of the miners for a continuance of the present wage scale was granted for a period extending over one year from April 1. The decision was reached very readily, it is said.

Well Known Jockey Dead.

Memphis, Tenn., April 3.—Otto Wondery, the well-known jockey, who was thrown from a horse at Montgomery Park Saturday, died last night.
